

CONTRACTOR COMPLIANCE

INFORMATION REQUIRED FROM CONTRACTORS BEFORE ATTENDING SITE

Risk assessments and method statements etc must be sent to the relevant construction manager and head office at least 7 days before the company commences work.

REQUIREMENTS ON OPERATIVES & MANAGERS OF CONTRACTORS ON ATTENDING SITE

There must be a named competent person in charge on site.

The above person to have risk assessments and method statements with him/her and they must understand the content and explain it to all persons under his/ her control.

All personnel, including managers must arrive on site with hard hats, safety footwear and high visibility vest plus any other PPE required.

All operatives must be competent to carry out his/her task and have received sufficient health and safety training.

If a young person attends site he/she must be under the control of a competent person at all times and the site manager must be notified.

All operatives must attend a site induction and agree to comply with all restrictions and site rules.

The only access equipment allowed on site is that which the contractor has deemed the most suitable and sufficient for the tasks.

All power tools must be either tested 110v or battery powered.

NON COMPLIANCE > NO START